

AY Consulting provides managed Domain Name Server (DNS) hosting services in addition to our other website hosting services. Our managed name server options enable users to have full control over internet domain names and websites, no matter where hosted.